

✉ valenycwong@gmail.com

fb valenycwong

ig valenyc

Project

EcoClan is a recycling game to all users especially for Universiti Sains Malaysia students. This project is designed an Augmented Reality game via Kinect 360 provided the message of recycling and keeping environments clean. The ideas were inspired by the rise of global warming due to increasing usage of non-decomposable solid waste such as plastic. The game allows the user to experience recycle activities by involving new interface in the Kinect simulation.